ANTI RAGGING CELL

Report for the academic year 2025-2026

The Anti-Ragging Cell at JESSE DEGREE COLLEGE has been working diligently to ensure the safety, well-being, and academic success of all students by fostering an environment free from ragging. This closing report reflects the outcomes achieved by the Anti-Ragging Cell during the academic year 2025-2026, highlighting the success of the institution's anti-ragging efforts and the continuous commitment to maintaining a zero-tolerance policy for ragging.

- Zero Incidents of Ragging:

No complaints or incidents of ragging were reported during the entire academic year. The anonymous reporting mechanisms, along with the proactive surveillance and awareness programs, helped create a climate of mutual respect and responsibility.

- Student Feedback:

Feedback collected from students through surveys and informal discussions indicated a high level of satisfaction with the institution's anti-ragging initiatives. Students expressed confidence in the institution's commitment to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all.

- Faculty Support:

Faculty members also reported that there were no signs of ragging or bullying in their respective departments. They noted that students were cooperative and maintained respectful behavior toward one another.

- Positive Campus Culture:

The efforts of the Anti-Ragging Cell contributed to a campus culture characterized by inclusivity, respect, and mutual support. Senior students, in particular, played a key role in maintaining this culture by acting as role models for the freshmen.

Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Cell at JESSE DEGREE COLLEGE has effectively ensured that the academic year 2025-2026 remained free of ragging incidents. This success reflects the collective efforts of the institution's administration, faculty, students, and staff in adhering to the zero-tolerance policy for ragging. With the continued dedication of all stakeholders and a commitment to ongoing awareness, the institution will strive to maintain a safe, supportive, and ragging-free environment for all students in the coming years.
